MRS. PEDRICK ENTERTAINS

Mrs. Esther Miller Dagenett of Rocky Ford Colorado, and Mrs. Nellie Carrey of Ft. Sill Okla., were the guests of Mrs. Laura Pedrick, Sunday, where they partook of a delicious dinner.

Mrs. Dagenett is a graduate of the Carlisle Indian schools and is refined, and an accomplished enthusiastic worker for her race. She was born near Paola, Kansas. Although her parents were uneducated, her father was Chief of his tribe and endorsed education. He went to the Quawan Agency, near Miami, Okla., where he entered his daughter in the government school and from there to the Carlisle Indian School where she was graduated. From there she was sent to Quincy, Illinois and entered business college. Later she married Chas. E. Dagenett, a Carlisle graduate.

While here she visited Mr. and Mrs. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Archibette, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Penoi and many other graduates from the Carlisle school. Mesdames Pedrick, Thomas and Carrey were her class mates. Mrs. Carrey is also in the service of the Ft. Sill Indian schools. She has been visiting Mrs. W. F. Dietrich. Mrs. Pedrick was government Field Matron for several years in Oklahoma and has done much good missionary work among the Indians. These noble women who are ever eager to educate and elevate their race, deserve much praise and credit for their faithful work. Mrs. Carrey left Sunday evening for her work in Ft. Sill, and Mrs. Dagenett will visit the Cheyenne and Arapaho schools at Darlington for a few weeks.

Male Stenographers And Typewriters In Demand

The United States Civil Service Commission announces that while it has no difficulty in securing sufficient female stenographers and typewriters to meet the needs of the departments at Washington, the supply of male eligibles has not been equal to the demand. Young men who are at least 18 years of age and who are willing to accept the usual entrance salaries, which are $840 and $900 a year, have excellent opportunities for appointment. While the entrance salaries are low, advancement is reasonably rapid to those meriting it. The examinations, which any competent stenographer should be able to pass, are held each month in the year, except December, at the principal cities of the United States.

Full information in regard to the examination may be secured by addressing the United States Civil Service Commission, Washington, D. C., or the District Secretary, Post Office, Boston, Mass., Philadelphia, Pa., Atlanta, Ga., Cincinnati, Ohio, Chicago, Ill., St. Paul, Minn., Seattle, Wash., San Francisco, Cal.; Customhouse, New York, N. Y., New Orleans, La.; or Old Customhouse, St. Louis, Mo.
